

The Bioresonance Method

Every living and none living thing, as well as every organ of the body has its own resonant frequency. All bacteria, viruses, parasites and fungi also have their own resonant frequencies.

When an organ, for instance the lung, gets sick, the resonant frequency will drop. When the lungs do function properly they resonate at a frequency of 72 cycles per second, but when there is an infection, the lung frequency will drop and there will be symptoms.

If we can produce the same frequency as a healthy lung using a frequency generator, such as the DETA devices, then we can help the lung to recuperate its normal functioning. The body heals and rebalances itself when it is connected to healthy frequencies. This is the principle of BIORESONANCE.

The application of bioresonance therapy can take the patient's pathological oscillations and invert these, therefore neutralizing these and helping the body to heal. In addition, frequencies can be used to eradicate parasites and microbes with bioresonance.

ADVANTAGES OF THE METHOD

- Accurate in trained hands
- Painless
- Generally quick and effective results
- Simple to apply
- Identifies the cause

DETA ELIS
PORTABLE, WIRELESS
BIORESONANCE DEVICES

The Deta Elis Holding Company

DETA ELIS was founded in 1992, in Zelenograd, Russia, by Dr Sergei Konopliov and his sister Tatiana Konopliova, who invented many of the bioresonance devices leading a group of Russian experts and scientists.

In 2014, targeting in international expansion, DETA ELIS became DETA ELIS HOLDING and moved its headquarters to Fulda, Germany, where many of the small DEVITA devices are now manufactured. The company, under the present leadership of CEO Tatiana Konopliova and marketing director Roman Novicov, aims to make its technology known all over the world.

The company holds over 70 worldwide patents for the invention of bioresonance devices.

Over the 20 years of research and development there have been over 120 studies conducted, with many awards and medals being awarded by various recognised bodies for the achievements in the field of wellness and health.

The DETA ELIS HOLDING company now opens its doors to all who wish to obtain or offer the opportunity for optimal wellness.

7th generation

DETA ELIS
BIORESONANCE DEVICES

portable device DeVita Ap

7th generation

This innovative, portable wellness device DEVITA AP helps to optimize health by detoxifying and neutralizing parasites and microbes using Bioresonance

- Cellular detoxification and regeneration
- Toxic metals and chemical detoxification
- Bioresonance neutralization of most types of parasites, bacteria, fungi and viruses

portable device DeVita Ritm

7th generation

Regulates cellular communication and restores optimal functioning of all organ systems

- Upregulate cardiovascular, gastrointestinal, hormonal, respiratory and urogenital systems
- Regulate different pain conditions
- Alleviate allergies, skin problems, joint problems and other health issues
- Regulate basic metabolic functions
- Help with insomnia, anxiety and mood imbalances
- Boost energy and alleviate chronic fatigue

portable device DeVita Cosmo

7th generation

The ultimate anti-aging and cosmetological device

- Eliminates wrinkles, acne, scars and skin defects at the cellular level
- Activates collagen and elastin metabolism
- Regulates organ systems that can lead to premature aging
- Balances function of nervous, endocrine, and other organ systems
- Helps eye problems related to aging

Deta UDT

Can be used for electroacupuncture, electromagnetic and colour light (quantum) therapies. Can address more than 400 imbalances in organ systems, as well as their symptoms programming software Therapy 8

Contains all the programs and frequencies required to program the DEVITA AP and RITM, including all the parasites and microbes, organ systems, detox and drainage problems.

Deta Professional

Used for bioresonance analysis (VRT) of the body in order to identify the underlying causes of a wide array of health issues.

Designed for the therapist who really wants to understand the pathogenesis of disease by understanding the underlying causative factors. Can also be used to help regulate imbalances by using 5 different modes of energetic healing:

- Bioresonance therapy
- Electroacupuncture
- Electromagnetic
- Colour therapy (Quantum light)
- Combination of the above

Deta Pharma

Used to help therapists identify the underlying causes of people's health issues, helping to understand the pathogenesis of disease. The DETA PHARMA does not have the energetic healing modes of the PROFESSIONAL it is only for identifying underlying causative factors.
